GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS MARTIN AND APPOINTS ROGERS TO LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Glen R. Martin of Bullock and appointed Gabriel L. Rogers of Charlotte to the N.C. Board of Licensed Professional Counselors.

Martin is a retired associate vice-chancellor for student affairs at N.C. Central University. He is a member of the American Counseling Association, the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision, the Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development and the N.C. Counseling Association. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Southern Illinois Normal University, his bachelor's degree in divinity and his master's degree in theology from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., his master's degree in education from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and his doctorate degree in counseling psychology from the University of Illinois.

Rogers is owner and principal broker for Kingdom Real Estate. He is a member of the American Counseling Association and the American Association of Christian Counselors. Rogers received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Johnson C. Smith University, his master's degree in counseling from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is currently working towards his doctorate degree in counseling from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

The board examines and approves the qualifications of applicants for licenses and issues or renews licenses to successful applicants. There are seven members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
